SPECIES OF GIGARTINACEAE AT A GLANCE (images with black backgrounds are microscope images: genera are separated on reproductive criteria) I. PLANTS ARE FOLIOSE; BLADES IRREGULARLY LOBED OR FORKED

II. MAIN AXES ARE BROAD; BRANCHING IS PINNATE

"Algae Revealed" R N Baldock, S Australian State Herbarium, March 2009

III. NARROWER BRANCHES, OFTEN CYLINDRICAL

Gigartina densa

"Algae Revealed" R N Baldock, S Australian State Herbarium, March 2009